Sale and Trade of Gaming Products Gold OSRS (en) Forums ELO zgt; Off Topic of the Spam Forum of the Spam Forum launched by ilovegold69, March 30, 2017. Scanned weekly Just spent $12 on cracked AMA qgt; users viewing this theme 1 guest Adblock breaks this site Sell and Trade Gaming Products (en) Gold OSRS (en) ELO Forums (u's) ELO Forums (sant) Off The Topic of the Spam Forum is the latest craze to start the year from none other than the supposedly shocking performance of Alyssa Rosales (so-called) But what's new here? Don't get me wrong, let him cool walk dogs, but lets don't pretend we haven't seen it a million times before. You can go to motherless.com and be presented with a dog all day long, even if you don't want to see that stuff. Apparently, high skool US teens love a little dog tearing the back of them! Its all the rage. Moving on... Wen I heard about this video, I just had to see that the hype was about. usually this kind of thing is more crap than sick, but some PPL love it so who I disagree?.. Anyway, I found the video and took a look. So... Allows (in an unverified way) to explore what we've seen with this video... The first thing I notice is that the so-called Alyssa is actually a bit fine! I wouldn't think twice about wanting to be a dog hanging in the back of it. Then I notice the installation ... looks pretty real right... Can! Then I notice Shes has done it before... There's nothing to fuck a dog for the first time and do it with such delight. ... which brings me to my last point... her noises! The only girls I've ever heard using sexual noises like fnarr and terms such as oh da fukk me arrr are stars. So who is Alyssa? I did a little research and didn't find much other than a million people's Facebook accounts pretending to be Alyssa just to keep the video on Facebook as it is the only place on earth that exists on the Internet. 700 million members and probably 650mil hav have no idea what the URL bar is and has an entire web address in Google. Other than that I found a few criminal mugshots of Alyssa.....that looked nothing like Alyssa, but apparently facebook internet pervs, anyone resembling being a girl means it's definitely hers. so.....if you ask me... it doesn't exist. Of course, the video does ... but Alyssa Rosales doesn't. So really ... Who is she? Who cares? ... The fact that there's so many fake accounts without real Alyssa stepping forward publicly makes me think that this video is just another viral idea for advertising. The real Alyssa probably some crackhead star paid pounds to fuck her dog. Most of the U.S. has no law against the installation of an animal, so you have to understand that it's millions, maybe billions of people around you who really don't see it as a problem.

Therefore, there would be no shame in making videos depicting such activity. And.. Once your paid to shoot the video... You don't get to get tell where it goes, or how famous it becomes. Advertising what? We live in a new world where people invent jobs just to fill the need for workers. You can get a certificate in training how to fill out forms now!!! People are inventing new ways of making money all the time. Viral videos have many ways to generate revenue, but nothing is as popular as banned videos! Imagine the revenue generated from running ads on your site with a million views a day! It's a lot of money! Facebook viruses also have another motive ... They want your email address! Once you like, or comment on the video, your opening email address is for the account holder. All they have to do is a quick search and you wouldn't believe what you might find! ... Solve no problem! People don't realize how much life there is on the Internet and how easy it is to access it. It won't be long before our census forms are automatically submitted through the stuff we're entering on Facebook and Google. The UK government has already admitted that facebook contains more information than census forms could. Who needs my address? About a billion scammers around the world. All you need is a few simple details and hey presto... Credit card! You have to be careful on facebook. On my account I have a few fake models, they're pretty easy to spot, but somehow from there maxed out of a list of friends, im only someone who can see it! They usually consist of American teenage girls in bikinis who look not like each other, but apparently the same person. A million omg your so sexy quotes from sad guys who make themselves believe that every pic is really the same girl, even tho last week pic they had tattoos!! So the American Chicks need my data? No LOL ... But Chinese, Thai and other Asian countries do! These accounts are always setup either by some 14-year-old Thai girl who takes on 15 personalities, links all the accounts and conversations in between as it is normal behavior... Or, a 56-year-old Nigerian man who is fed up with selling pallets of invisible laptops! They're taking something not so impressive....and boom make it famous! All you have to do is create a simple story I lost a bet on or see what a top-class student did when she got drunk. If you don't have to see it... Everyone wants to see it! and they have to do it. see it once....and you helped the et on being rich!! I've got tired of typing now and I feel they're going to leave the theme.... bad end with this... If you like fucking dogs..... see how much you love hepatitis!!! Also... If you make kno a real alys. let me know so that I can dress like a dog!!! I have a curiosity in that CP 218 810 sterling (painful !
